

PROGRAMME

TRADITION IS THE NEW RADICAL: REMAPPING MASCULINITIES AND FEMININITIES IN THEOLOGY

December 12th

13.00-14.00 Registration opens, Entrance of the LUX building

14.00-14.30 Opening of the conference, LUX C216

14.30-16.00 Plenary session I: Key-note by Tina Beattie, "Maternal Matters: Eve, Woman and the Genesis of Gender", LUX C126

16.00-16.30 Coffee

16.30-17.30 Parallel paper session I

Paper Session I:a, LUX B336

Revisiting the Misogyny of Early Cistercians: Bernard or Clairvaux's Subordinate Bride and an Alternate Tradition – John Arblaster

Matter and Femininity: A Problem or a Resource? On Giordano Bruno's Metaphysics – Jonna Bornemark

Paper session I:b, LUX B352

The Erotic Gaze: Saints and Sadomasochistic Pleasure, Bodily Borders and Liberation of Queer Desire and Christian Theology – Susanne Wigorts Yngvesson

18.00-22.00 Dinner buffet LUX, C212 refectory

December 13th

9.00-10.00 Parallel paper session II

Paper session II:a, LUX B336

Complexity and Authority: Islamic and Christian Tradition Radically Reclaimed – Teresa Callewaert.

The Female Peacemaker: Remapping Femininities in the Interspace between Traditions – Sara Gehlin

Paper session II:b, LUX B352

Unorthodox Sexuality: Repetition, Resistance and Tradition in Lars von Trier's Nymphomaniac vol. I and II – Mikael Larsson

Gender Bending and (Re)Creating Tradition in Biblical Ethnography – Jennifer Nyström

Paper session II:c, LUX B339

Mysticism between the Political and Erotic – Laura Hellsten

Privatized Monasticism: Asceticism as Individualized Spirituality and Obliteration of the Self – Lovisa Nyman & Ulrika Svalfors

10.00-10.45 Lucia coffee Entrance of the LUX building

10.45-12.00 Parallel paper session III

Paper session III:a, LUX B336

Clerical Sisters and Feminine Priests – Gender Constructions among Catholic Missionaries in the Nordic Countries in the era of Ultramontanism – Yvonne Maria Werner

The Witch's Body as the Underside of Christian Tradition: An Exercise in Queer Redemption – Kristien Justaert

Parallel paper session III:b, LUX B352

The Male Savior – Johanna Lundin

Orthodox Theology from Malevich to Pussy Riot – Petra Carlsson

Parallel paper session III:c, LUX B339

Kenosis as Ideal – A Problem and a Resource – Jenny Karlsson

The Language of the Triune God – Ninna Edgardh

12.00-13.30 Lunch

13.30-15.00 Plenary session II: Key-note by Victor Seidler, "Jewish tradition, masculinities and modernities", LUX B237

15.00-15.30 Coffee

15.30-16.30 Parallel paper session IV

Parallel paper session IV:a, LUX B336

Breastfeeding from Christ – Sally Douglas

Gendered Economies of Salvation – Ida Simonsson

Parallel paper session IV:b, LUX B352

Remapping the Body of Christ and imago Dei: Intersex and Reimagining the ‘One-Sex’ Model – Stephanie A. Budwey

Beyond Birth and Death: Eschatology and Sexual Indifference in the Thought of Erik Peterson – Mårten Björk

17.00 Guided tour in Lund Cathedral

18.00-22.00 Dinner buffet, LUX C212 refectory

December 14th

9.00-10.30 Plenary session III: Key-note by Linn Tonstad, ”Everything Queer, Nothing Radical?”
LUX B237

10.30-11.00 Coffee

11.00-12.00 Panel and open floor discussion, LUX B237